CHIPPEWA CO. LAND AGENCY,
WILLIAM J. YOUNG,
County Surveyor of Chippewa County,
OFFERS his services in locating Land Warrants on Pine or farming lands.
Some good pretty land can yet be found in the lower part of the County. In the upper part there are the best of locations, timbered with Sugar Maple, Birch, Oak, Linden, &c. These lands are in the immediate vicinity of the pineries, which will always afford an excellent market.
Bond warrants to me by mail, and I will carefully locate them at the following reduced prices, to-wit:

160 acres,	for entire section	$8 00
120 "	"	7 00
80 "	"	6 00

Pine lands, (of which there is yet considerable unentered,) $4.00 per 40 acres, whether in large or small quantities. An addition of one dollar per 40 acres will be required for Land Office fees.
Every location I will personally and carefully examine.

FOR FREE KANSAS—FREE PRESS—FREE SPEECH—FREMONT!

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. FREMONT.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM L. DAYTON.

FOR ELECTORS,
State at Large { EDWARD D. HOLTON. TIMOTHY O. HOWE.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The Philadelphia Convention has placed in nomination the names of JOHN C. FREMONT for President, and WILLIAM L. DAYTON, of New Jersey, for Vice President. We raise that flag at the head of our columns, and under it the hosts of Freedom will gather for VICTORY. The platform adopted by the Convention is a noble one. The telegraphic copy which we have is imperfect in some minor particulars, but sufficient to show the mind of the Convention. Of this platform, more to-morrow.

JOHN CHARLES FREMONT was born in South Carolina, in January 1813, and is thus 43 years of age—the very prime and vigor of manhood. He is the son of an emigrant from France, by a Virginia lady. His father died when the boy was but 4 years of age, but the latter was liberally educated, and, graduating at Charleston College at 17, he began to contribute to the support of his mother and the younger children. Having displayed much talent in civil engineering, he was recommended to Nicollet, who was about commencing his survey of the regions bordering the Upper Mississippi, and he was two years in that service, remaining at Washington 2 years longer, engaged in arranging from the field notes the results of that survey. This duty completed, Fremont's thirst for adventure led him to plan the distant and perilous expedition, to the great West, which have given him a name and fame.

Having received a Lieutenant's Commission in the Topographical Engineers, he proposed to the department to lead an expedition to the Rocky Mountains, and, his plan being approved, he recruited a small party of men on the borders, and pushed through the wilderness, discovering the great South Pass, and returned to prepare an elaborate report on the geography, geology, botany, &c., of the region through which he passed, which was printed by Congress, and in foreign languages, and placed his name among the foremost scientific men of the day.

He now planned another expedition beyond the mountains into Oregon, and in May of 1843 left Missouri, reaching Fort Vancouver and the Pacific in November of that year, having meantime surveyed the regions about the Great Salt Lake as well as those in his direct line. Not content with this, he wished to survey another route, running through Upper California, in a country unknown to white men; and with 25 companions, at the beginning of winter he turned back. No word was heard from that little band through nine months of incredible hardships and sufferings, but at length Fremont, with the survivors, appeared again, having travelled 3,500 miles, and accomplished a thorough survey of Alta California, the Sierra Nevada, the valleys of the rivers, and revealed the leading features of our Pacific Empire.

He returned to Washington to prepare his report, and in 1845 was again on his way to examine further the country over which he had passed. The war with Mexico found him there, and, as Lieut. Col. of mounted riflemen, he bore his full share in the contest, in taking possession of the country, and opened the golden gates of El Dorado, having by his administrative talent already provided a strong government over the new possessions. But the quarrels of other commanders intervened, and he was made their victim, and was sent home a prisoner to be court-martialed and deprived of his commission, to the indignation of his brave companions and the whole country. He was reinstated by the President, but feeling the injustice with which he had been treated, he returned the commission, and determined to return as a private citizen to the land of which he had been the Conqueror and the Governor.

Proposing to survey a route for a road through the wilderness of San Francisco by a shorter way, he gathered some 30 of his old companions, and started westward. The sufferings endured by this expedition were dreadful, and it was only when almost starved and in tatters that those who endured the Siberian cold, and clambered through the deep snows with life remaining, reached Santa Fe! The brave mountaineers again gathered around him, and recruited his party, and he plunged again into the wilderness with a moral heroism that knew no despair, and defeating the warlike savages that opposed his march, he stood again, in three months, on the banks of the Sacramento.

The people of California welcomed their early friend joyfully, and, after a struggle in which the worst charge brought against him was that he made California FREE, he was sent to Congress as the first Senator from the Golden State.

We have no space to-day in which to tell of his services in that capacity, or of the manner in which his enemies, for his services in giving California a Free Constitution, refused to re-elect him as United States Senator. But we have given enough of his history to show the indomitable energy of the man, the perseverance in a great work, which has made his name familiar as a household word. No man living has displayed more of those characteristics, and none has, more than FREMONT, exhibited that power over the minds of men, and those features of heroism, self sacrifice, coolness in danger, endurance in suffering, unsullied ambition, and purity of personal character, which mark the man for great emergencies. A crisis is now upon us which requires such a character, and the unexampled unanimity with which he has been called for from all quarters is proof that JOHN C. FREMONT IS THE MAN FOR THE TIME. If there ever is a time when the old adage, "The voice of the people is the voice of God," is true, it is in such times as these, when the popular heart, aroused by outrage, throbs for freedom so loudly that those who pass each other in the streets, and counsel with each other in the workshops, hear its pulsations, and look around for the leader for their gathering hosts. The people have called for FREMONT with unmistakable emphasis, and he is before us. The people will follow him to VICTORY!

The remarkable unanimity which characterised the nomination of Col. FREMONT for President, was also witnessed in the nomination of his associate on the ticket, Hon. WILLIAM L. DAYTON, of New Jersey, a staunch and true old statesman, whom the Jerseymen have delighted to honor, and who was the Whig U. S. Senator from that State from 1842 to 1851. He was never known to falter in the path of duty, and placed in the chair of the Senate, will do his part to restore that body to the position of respectability which it has lost of late years.

Welcome Friends.

Among the large number of Germans who arrived in our city yesterday to celebrate their Musical Festival this week, are some hundreds of genuine whole-hearted Republicans from Illinois, where their countrymen, who have become American citizens are united and harmonious for freedom. We had the pleasure of greeting several of the German editors who are doing noble work in the cause of freedom, and the leaven which they bring with them will do good among their countrymen here, who are getting sick of supporting slavery-aggression under the guise of "democracy." Our editorial friends are full of enthusiasm, and go for Fremont with all the warmth of their natures. In conversing with them we were struck with one fact, which will tell with emphasis in the campaign this year.—The great body of earnest, influential, thinking and acting men who left Germany in 1848, disgusted with oppression, disappointed at the failure of the movement for freedom, and despairing of present help for their own country, and who have made them homes in this land, are voters this year for the first time at a Presidential election, and never will a vote be given by them to strengthen and perpetuate Slavery. Their influence will be felt, and on the right side.

THE 4TH OF JULY.—The News seems, by its articles of yesterday, to give some degree of confirmation to the remark frequently made that the celebration of the coming "Fourth" has been arranged with special reference to the glorification of the Buchanan-Nebraska-democracy. We had noticed the fact that the President, Marshal, both orators, both readers, and the Chairmen of all the Committees but one, belong to that class, but said nothing about it, in the hope that the thing might pass off as oversight. But the following from the News, is worthy of notice by our citizens:

The people here will want to know whether this celebration is to be conducted by those who advertise for traitors, by the recruiting sergeants who drum up recruits for Kansas and yet dare not go there themselves.

There will be deep thinking whether secessionists, disunionists, traitors, cowards, are to control the celebration of that anniversary that made the country ONE, or whether it is to be celebrated by the people as brothers.

VERY WELL. Now, if there be madness enough about the managers of the celebration to do it, let them come out and place this matter before the people in its true light. If it is to be a pro Slavery glorification let us know it. If the News, article exhibits the spirit of its managers, let us know it. If not, let us understand it, before we go further.

JUDGE MCLEAN ON KANSAS.—The New York Times of the 16th, contains the correspondence between Chief Justice HORNBLOWER, of New Jersey, and Judge MCLEAN, of the Supreme Court, in regard to the state of the country, and particularly in regard to the position of matters in Kansas. Judge MCLEAN says:—"Occupying the position I do, it is not permitted to me to speak of the transactions in Kansas in their legal aspect; but I may say with you, that I contemplate the violence, bloodshed and civil and fraternal war now transpiring there with mingled emotions of sadness, alarm and mortification.—They are the fruits of that ill-advised and mischievous measure—the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—which, from the first, I have earnestly deprecated; and I have no hesitation in saying that the immediate admission of Kansas as a State into the Union under the Constitution already formed, commends itself to me as a measure of sound policy, and well calculated to bring peace to the Territory and to the country.

Donations to the Kansas Aid Society.

The Secretary of the Kansas Aid Society requests us to acknowledge the following sums of money received through Professor DANIELS:

From Portage City,	$88 40
" Baraboo,	15 40
" Delton,	7 10
" Genesee,	9 00
" Palmyra,	26 47
" Fort Atkinson,	102 50
" Waukesha,	44 90
" Watertown,	10 00

Professor DANIELS informs us that in places where he has addressed the people in the interior, some 4000 has been pledged to the cause of Freedom in Kansas. He is just the man for the work in which he is engaged, and the truth of his statements well answers to the eloquence with which he presents them. His enemies affect to sneer at him, but none of them dare meet him in argument.

Letter from Col. Fremont.

The following is the letter from Col. Fremont the Tabernacle meeting, alluded to by Mr. Booth in his letter copied elsewhere:

New York, April 29, 1856.

GENTLEMEN—I have to thank you for the honor of an invitation to a meeting this evening, at the Broadway Tabernacle, and regret that other engagements have interfered to prevent my being present.

I heartily concur in all the movements which have for their object "to repair the mischiefs arising from the violation of good faith in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise?" I am opposed to Slavery in the abstract and upon principle, sustained and made habitual by long settled convictions.

While I feel inflexible in the belief that it ought not to be interfered with where it exists under the shield of State Sovereignty, I am as inflexibly opposed to its extension on this Continent beyond its present limits.

With the assurance of regard for yourselves,
I am very respectfully yours,
(Signed) J. C. FREMONT.

A Committee, &c.

THE FIRST BOAT THROUGH.—The Oshkosh Courier of the 17th announces, in a modest paragraph, the arrival of the first boat through the locks from Green Bay;

THE RIVER IMPROVEMENT—FIRST BOAT FROM GREEN BAY.—The Improvement Co.'s steamer, Pioneer, came through from Green Bay yesterday, with a good load of passengers and freight. She landed at our dock about 3 P. M., having left the Bay in the morning and made the passage through without difficulty, or detention.—The steamer Aquilla left here yesterday morning, for Green Bay.

A MARK OF CONFIDENCE.—The Cincinnati Convention did not adjourn without some testimonial of its regard for Congressman Ruet, of Arkansas, the bully who assaulted Greeley, being appointed a Member of the National Democratic Committee. This was an appropriate selection, and shows that the Democracy are not ungrateful for eminent services.

☞ The News, out of pure benevolence towards "our foreign-born citizens," founds a paragraph in their behalf upon a remark made by us in relation to the uneasy movements of one of the Black Yagers. As we had corrected the error alluded to, the day previous, the News' object is clear enough.

RAILROAD VOTE.—Fond du Lac County votes on the 25th in regard to loaning the credit of the county to the Air Line Railroad to the amount of $100,000, and to the Sheboygan Railroad, through Fond du Lac to Ripon, to the amount of $200,000, as authorized by law.

THEBES, March 4, 1856.

After examining several ruined temples, we entered a gorge in the mountains and proceeded up a narrow defile for upwards of two miles. These mountains are of naked sandstone without the least sign of vegetation, and so arid and hot with the reflected heat from their sides, that it is like passing through a heated oven. Everything was scorched and burnt with heat. The valley was perhaps ten rods in width, and its appropriate name should have been that of the shadow of death. When we had rode nearly an hour through this desolate region, we came to where the whole mountains seem to close in around us, overhanging the small open area with almost perpendicular cliffs. Here we dismounted and found ourselves in front of the doors that led to the tombs of the Theban kings. One would hardly think that after passing through such gloomy portals, there could be found within the heart of those dreary mountains, vast halls, corridors, vaulted rooms, with statues and fresco paintings glowing with life, splendid sarcophagi and monumental inscriptions—yet such is the fact, for men were mortals four thousand years ago as now, and equally ambitious to obtain for their names and deeds what they deemed an immortality.

After dismounting and refreshing ourselves with water brought by half a dozen boys who had followed us all the way from the Nile with ghoolers filled from the sacred river, we proceeded to follow the guide into the most celebrated tomb—that of Belzoni, named after the man who discovered it. After descending a gradual inclined plane for some distance, we came to a level space, and on turning soon found ourselves in what is called the "hall of beauty." From this we proceeded into various other rooms of different sizes, some having lofty ceilings with a plane surface and others vaulted, some with pillars and columns and others having statuary of colossal proportions and also of the size of life. All the sides of these rooms were covered with hieroglyphics and paintings. Many of the former are unknown to the ablest scholars in oriental lore, and probably never will be deciphered. In one room whose roof is studded with golden stars, is Osiris, who is represented among different divinities sitting on his throne and passing sentence upon souls of the dead who pass before him on their leaving the body.

Of all the gods worshipped by the ancient Egyptians there was none held in so much reverence and awe as Osiris. Even Herodotus, who was not superstitious, held this deity in such an exalted degree that in mentioning anything concerning him, he always begged his readers to excuse him for not daring to utter his name.—What have you, sons of brave sires who bled for Freedom, to answer to their cry?

The speech was interrupted by frequent responses from the audience, and at its close all seemed impatient for action.

It was moved that the meeting proceed at once to give practical evidence of their sympathy for the imperilled cause of Liberty in Kansas, which motion was carried.

Cash contributions were received, amounting to $102 50, and several hundred dollars subscribed to be paid monthly, during the continuance of the war.

Mr. Wells and Mr. Wilcox enrolled their names among Frank Pierce's company of Traitors. Twenty dollars were then raised towards buying a Sharpe's rifle (a Beecher's Bible) for Mr. Wells.

A son of '76 hobbled up to the stand, and said he had but 22 cents, which he laid, as the widow's mite, upon the altar of Freedom.

It was then arranged that the ladies of Ft. Atkinson should give a public dinner on the 4th of July, the avails to aid Kansas; and a committee was appointed to carry out the arrangement viz John W. Hoyt, W. Bean and G. C. Smith.

Voted that every able bodied man enroll himself as a minute man, ready to go at the call of Liberty to Kansas.

The meeting adjourned until evening to hear Elder McKee. The house was filled to overflowing. The Elder is a storm. He thundered for two hours, and his lightning truths struck around him with resistless force.

The meeting then adjourned till the 4th of July.

For the Sentinel.

Great Kansas Meeting at Ft. Atkinson.

Pursuant to notice a large and exceedingly enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Jefferson County assembled at Fort Atkinson on Saturday, June 13th.

On motion, Dr. Bryant, of Lake Mills, was called to the chair, and E P. May elected Secretary.

Elder McKee then addressed the Throne of Grace in behalf of suffering Kansas.

The President then made an address, urging with impressive and stirring words the necessity of immediate action.

Professor Daniels being loudly called for, came forward and addressed the meeting in a speech of great power and eloquence. He drew a thrilling picture of the wrongs of Kansas, and the sufferings of her brave and devoted people. He recounted the catalogue of crimes, long, dark and bloody, which have been committed against freedom, against law, against the Constitution, in order to make Kansas a Slave State, and give the Slave power perpetual predominance on this continent. He laid the responsibility where it belongs—at the door of Northern traitors who have permitted the Slave power to absorb all the vital force of the Federal Government, and convert it into a gigantic conspiracy against Freedom, Humanity and Progress. He presented the present condition and needs of Kansas. She needs not emigrants to vote merely, for two-thirds of her population are Free State men, who could settle the matter in a moment if it were to be done by voting. Kansas needs protection against the lawless and irresponsible force which now endangers the lives and liberties of her citizens. Her noble sons and daughters fighting the battles of our common freedom lift their cries for help; the earth red with their blood, and the sky, red with the conflagration of their houses, re-echo their appeal.

This side of Heaven they can look only to you for succor. They want men, provisions, arms.—What have you, sons of brave sires who bled for Freedom, to answer to their cry?

From the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

What Parliament did when Privileges were Invaded.

Burnet in his "Own Times" gives the following occurrence as happening in the reign of Charles II: "It had been proposed in the House of Commons to lay a tax on the Theatres. The Court opposed this—the players being, it was said, a part of the King's pleasure. Sir John Coventry asked whether did the King's pleasure lie among the men or the women that acted.—This was carried with great indignation to the Court. It was said that this was the first time that the King was personally reflected on. If it was passed over, more of the same kind would follow, and it would grow a fashion to talk so. It was, therefore, fit to take such severe notice of this, that nobody should dare talk at that rate for the future.

The punishment was undertaken by Charles' son, the Duke of Monmouth. He having engaged a sett of bravos, Sir John was set upon as he was going home, and his nose was cut to the bone, to teach him to remember what respect he owed to the King.

This, says Burnet, put the House of Commons in a furious uproar. They passed a bill of banishment against the actors of it, and put a clause in the bill that it should not be in the King's power to pardon them."

(Wonder what the Lords and Commons would have done with Herbert and Brooks? We rather think the Lords, Commons and People, all together, would have been in "furious uproar," and that Herbert would have been "hung by the neck till he was dead," and that Brooks would have been banished to Botany Bay or Van Diemon's land.)

THE CURRENT FOR FREMONT.—HIS VIEWS ON THE PENDING QUESTION.—The editor of the Free Democrat writes to his paper from New York City as follows:—

The current has set in strong for Fremont and it appears now as if he would be nominated without serious opposition. I had an interview with him this afternoon, and am to see him again in the morning. He is open and frank in the expression of his views. He is opposed to slavery, not only in Kansas, but in all the Territories. His friends have not been wise in not making his views public. He wrote a strong anti-slavery letter to the Tabernacle meeting here some two months ago, which his over-prudent friends did not publish on account of its strong anti-slavery position.

OBSTRUCTING RAILWAYS.—Two men, named Eggers and Sleder, were arrested on Saturday last, for placing obstructions on the Michigan Southern R. R. not far from Chicago. The arrest was the successful issue of a deep laid plan of Pinkerton, the skilful Chicago detective officer.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—About 1 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the machine shop and plow factory of Billings & Carman, on King St, and totally destroyed it. A small portion of the tools and stock were saved, also the books and papers; but the loss is very heavy, and fall upon parties who are illy able to bear it. The origin of the fire is shrouded in mystery. We could not ascertain the amount of the loss this morning. No insurance.—Madison Argus.

The Republican Platform.

The following is the platform adopted at Philadelphia. It is brief, yet comprehensive, bold, decisive and straightforward. We commend it to the candid and careful perusal of all.

Whereas, This Convention of Delegates assembled in pursuance of a call addressed to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the policy of the present Administration, to the extension of Slavery in Kansas, and in favor of the admission of Kansas for a Free State, for the restoring the action of the federal government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President,

Resolved, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the federal constitution, are essential to the preservation of our Republican institutions, the federal constitution and the rights of the States, and that the Union of the States shall be preserved.

Resolved, That with our Republican Fathers we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with the undeniable right of liberty and pursuit of happiness; that the primary object and ulterior design of our federal government was to secure such rights to all persons within its exclusive jurisdiction; that, as our Republican Fathers, when they had abolished Slavery in our National territory, ordained that no person should be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the constitution—against all attempts to violate it, for the purpose of establishing Slavery in the United States, and by positive legislation to prohibit its extension therein; that we deny the authority of Congress, of a territorial legislature, or any individuals or associations to give legal assistance to Slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present constitution shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the constitution confers on Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government and the exercise of their power; it is both the right and duty of Congress to prohibit in the territories polygamy and Slavery.

Resolved, That while the constitution of the United States was ordained and established in order to establish a more perfect union, justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, and secure the blessings of liberty, and contains ample provisions for the protection of life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them; their Territory has been invaded by an armed force, spurious and pretended Judicial and Executive officers have been set over them—by whose usurped authority, sustained by the military power of the Government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced; the rights of the people to keep and bear arms have been infringed, test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding offices; the right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, have been denied; the right of the people to be secure in their houses, their papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures have been violated; they have been deprived of life, liberty and property without due process of law; that the freedom of speech and the press has been abridged; the right to choose their representatives have been made of no effect; murders, robberies and arson have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished, yet all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction, and procurement of the present Administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union and humanity, we arraign the Administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, as accessaries, either before or after the facts, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of the atrocious outrages, and their accomplices to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be admitted as a State of the Union, with her present Free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil war now raging in her territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that might makes right, embodied in the Ostend circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any Government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a Railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the more central and practicable route is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal Government ought to tender immediate and efficient aid in its construction, and, as an auxiliary thereto, the immediate construction of an emigrant route on the line of the Railroad.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors, of a national character, required for the accommodation and security of our existing commerce, are authorized by the Constitution and justified by the obligation of Government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and co-operation of the men of all parties, however different from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared; and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the Constitution of our country, guarantee full liberty of conscience and equality of rights among all citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

Satisfactory—Entirely.

The Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of Virginia Democracy, says of the Cincinnati candidate and platform:

The fact is, that both platform and candidates are satisfactory to the most scrupulous stickler of southern rights.

What "southern rights" are, we learn from the same interesting paper, as follows:

Sumner and Sumner's friends must be punished and silenced, Government, which cannot suppress such crimes as theirs, has failed of its purpose. Either such wretches must be hung or put in the penitentiary, or the South should prepare at once to quit the Union. We would not jeopard the religion and morality of the South to save a Union that had failed for every useful purpose

AN AFFRAY NEAR MUCKWA.—An affray occurred on Saturday near Muckwa, between Mr. W. James and a party of Indians, the particulars of which, as related by Dr. Chas. Linde, were as follows:

"Mr. James being disturbed while hunting, yesterday night, by a party of drunken Indians, went to their wigwam and quietly requested them to stop their noise, upon which they attacked him, unexpectedly, taking away his gun, throttling him, and attempting to stab him with a knife.—He defended himself with his hunting knife, and succeeded in disabling all of them—three in number. The gun which they attempted to fire at him, (his own fortunately missed fire, being set at half-cock, and he escaped uninjured, the exception of a slight choking. Two of the Indians are dangerously, and one slightly wounded."

Caution to Western Merchants.

WOLFE'S
SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.

THIS CELEBRATED MEDICINAL BEVERAGE is manufactured at the manufactory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Holland. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article, and no preparation bearing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from is agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-similie of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants

UDOLPHO WOLFE,
Nos 13, 20 and 22 Beaver Street, New York.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 20, 1856. NEW SERIES.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Friday Morning, June 20.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 19.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Lawrence Sullivan, drunk and disorderly, fined $2; Wm. H. Skinner, drunk and disorderly, fined $3; Patrick Flood, drunk, fined $1.

A warrant was issued against Josiah L. Robbins and Isaiah L. Gilman, charging them with having counterfeit money in their possession with intent to pass the same; both the defendants had been previously arrested and were in jail. The examination will not be held for some days.

CHARGE OF ROBBING A PASSENGER.—John Gallagher, Jr., was examined on a charge of having on the 31 day of June, by force and arms robbed Ellen C. Baker of $5,25 in a house of prostitution on the Lisbon Plank Road. The evidence showed clearly that the complainant was a prostitute, living at Klug's house, on the Lisbon Plank Road, and that at the time mentioned in the complaint, the defendant, after making several threats, and striking her with a chair and stick, threatening to kill her, obtained from her a pocket book containing $5,25; that a day or two afterwards defendant tore up a pocket book, &c. On the cross examination she admitted dancing with the defendant twice the same evening after the alleged robbery, and that she had on previous occasion given him money.

On the defence it was shown that the defendant admitted that he had got $5, from the complainant, but that she gave it to him.

The Court, after a patient examination, and listening with attention to an able argument from defendant's counsel, who tried to put it upo n the ground of "peruasive violence," and that it was a common occurrence incident to such houses, held the defendant for trial in the sum of $1,000 bail, which was given.

The Court commented on the scenes which the examination had disclosed, and "how disgusting and deplorable it was to see a young woman totally given up to prostitution, and the inmate of such a house—a course of life that in a few years would drive her to a hospital, and thence to a grave; but if there was anything still more degrading and disgusting, it was the plups and bullies—the class of men frequenting such houses, the lowest class of beings on God's earth." The representatives of this class present felt the rebuke, and some of them sneaked out of the room.

The house is outside the city limits, and hence beyond the jurisdiction of the City Police; and as the complaining witness stated on her direct testimony, of the dangerous class of men frequenting the house, and that "they were very bad thieves there," and that while she was being robbed she was afraid to call for help, on account of the character of the persons present in the house, the only inference that we could draw from the witness' statement was, they did "worse things" than robberies there. Is it not about time that the Sheriff of the County attended to the matter, or, following the dread example of California, must we have a vigilance committee to rid the county of these thieves, and perhaps worse than thieves?

Books! Books!

We received, some time since, from E. C. ARNOLD, two or three new publications, which were mislaid or stolen, before being acknowledged. One was a copy of the "PIAZZA TALES," a collection of MELVILLE'S writings from Putnam's Magazine, published by DIX & EDWARDS, and good reading, of course. The others were two of Redfield's latest publications of Stowe's "Novels," "Beauchampe" and Charlemont." We should not wonder if ARNOLD had us that these popular narratives were all gone before this notice appears.

THE HALLIG, OR THE SNEEFOLD IN THE WATSEG, a Tale of humble life on the coast of Schleswig; translated from the German of BERNATZKI by Mrs. G. F. MARSH.

The excellent taste of the accomplished translator of this work would be a sufficient guarantee of its interest, without any other recommendation. She tells us in her preface that it has received much commendation in Germany as a highly interesting contribution to the physical geography of a part of Europe lying quite beyond the reach of ordinary observation, and as a general and faithful sketch of human life under conditions which are hardly paralleled elsewhere. The term "Hallig" is used to designate the small islands in the North Sea, on one of which the writer of the volume resided as a preacher. The style of the translation is beautiful.

THE SAENGERBUND FESTIVAL.—The city was full of music-loving Germans all day, yesterday, good-humored and happy. The sound of bands of music was heard at intervals in our principal streets, as processions marched by, being delegates from abroad, escorted by members of the Committee of reception.

At 2 P. M., these present assembled at Market Hall, and were greeted by Dr. FESSEL in a well-conceived address.

In the evening, Young's Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and overflowing, to witness the Opera of Alessandro Stradella, performed by the Milwaukee Society.

The programme for to-day is as follows:

At 8 A. M., the singers meet on Market Square, and march in procession to Young's Hall, to rehearse for the grand Concert of the Saengerbund, to take place in the afternoon. This last will be the feature of the week.—Each Society is to sing one chorus by itself, besides those which the whole sing together. In the evening, a theatrical performance at Market Hall.

The weather is admirable for the occasion.

WONDERS OF THE WORLD COMING!—The renowned Col. Wood, a man of mark and standing, arrived in town last evening to make arrangements for the exhibition of the Seven Wonders of the World. What they are we cannot tell, for he has cut the advertisement out of the paper which he handed us. We are sure, however, that both the Silver Lake and Manistee serpents are among them. The Col. is looking around for a hall. If he can't get one large enough the people, he intends to roof over Market Square with a canvass "deeply, darkly, beautifully blue," &c. His "programme" will appear also fyi.

HARPER FOR JULY.—We have received from our enterprising friend SOLE, 213 East Water Street, for an early copy of Harper for July, and N. Y. papers in 40 hours from New York. He has also new supplies of Sumner's Speech.

We have only had time to look at Harper enough to see that it opens with an illustrated edition of Joel Barlow's poem on "Hasty Pudding." Joel was a great poet in his day, but somebody ought to have taught him the difference between rough and hasty pudding.

"NEW BOARDING HOUSE."—The advertisement under this heading will attract the attention of numerous persons who desire comfortable rooms and board in a convenient location. The advertiser is well known to many of our best citizens who have removed to this city from Boston, and is highly commended by them.

WALNUT HILL FARM FOR SALE.—What can induce such a good looking man as the owner to part with such a beautiful farm as the Walnut Hill place, advertised to-day, we know not; but there is no accounting for the ways of some people. We should like to have somebody present us with such a farm, for the sake of trying us.

☞ The steamer Arctic arrived from Chicago yesterday morning, bringing about 300 of the happiest Deutchers we ever saw. A band of music, "the steamers waving in the wind"—the Arctic was dressed with colors from keelson to truck. The party were from Chicago to attend the German Festivals now going on in the city.

FOR BUFFALO.—The propeller Potomac will leave for Buffalo this morning, at 9 o'clock; for passage, apply to JOHN GRIFFIN, on Huron street.

MILLINERY SALE.—ROONEY gives notice of an extensive sale of millinery goods. Also of numerous other things in his line.

500 Acres Timber Lands.

THE UNDERSIGNED offers for sale over 500 acres of heavily timbered lands in the immediate vicinity of the city, as follows:

160 acres three miles south on the Chicago road, and on the Lake Shore Railroad. There are over 500 cords of wood chopped, and several hundred piles and ties, which will be sold with the lot if desired. It lies over a mile road front, and can be conveniently divided into 40 acre farms.

300 acres 5¾ miles west of the city, heavy timber, with over two miles of road front and will conveniently divide into several farms.

The soil is equal to any in Milwaukee County, and both tracts are surrounded by well cultivated farms, and in good neighborhoods.

The timber is of the most valuable quality, and with proper management can be made to pay for the land The lots will be sold together or divided to suit purchasers. Title perfect and terms favorable.

Large and Extensive Sale of 100 LOTS in Walker's Point Southern Addition takes place July 15th, at 10 o'clock, at my store.

The said addition being that valuable tract of land formerly belonging to Doctor Harriman. It is a fine land is handsomely located, from it's view of the city. The soil is very rich. The said tract is within one mile of the City lots, of a good size. Here another opportunity offers to all who wish to secure themselves a home, to obtain one at a low price, and on very easy terms.

Plats will be ready, and the sale will take place at Public Auction, on the ground for it at private sale two days before sale, and the price so firm, and lots continue to rise, which is one of the main reasons why this land is offered at this time, and the demand for it at private sale has been so great, and of our mechanics can have a chance to get a home at a reasonable price. All will agree, which see the lots, that a beautiful location for lots in 6th Ward, and better soil for gardens, &c., than any other Ward in the city, and such is the situation of the lots in Walker's Point Southern addition, that all who want homes in the 6th Ward go and obtain. The terms of sale are ¼ cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years 7 per cent.

Sunshine.

BY WILLIAM NORRICK LAWRENCE.

How beautiful the rays
Of summer sunshine fall
On hill and vale, and cast
A golden hue o'er all.

The silver stream floats by
With golden jewels deck'd;
The golden leaves softly sigh,
With lights and shadows fleck'd.

The velvet mead and lawn,
The moss beside the stream,
Are bathed in watery glow
As in a fairy dream.

'Tis luxury to breathe
The mellow, golden air;
'Tis happiness to gaze
On all so bright and fair.

Yes! sunlight joy imparts,
And every heart doth feel
Its gentle influence warm
Through each pulsation steal.

It gilds the vault above,
It gilds the earth beneath,
And with its warmth and joy
Our transient lives doth wreathe.

Then bless the sunshine fair,
That cheers us on our way,
Till we shall reach that clime
Where it is endless day.

HARTFORD, Conn.

GOOD AND EVIL.—The web of our life is of a mingled yarn, good and ill together; our virtues would be proud if our faults whipped them not, and our crimes would despair, if they were not cherished by our virtues.—Shakspeare.

LITERATURE.—It opens a back door out of the bustle of the busy and idle world into a delicious garden of moral intellectual fruits and flowers, the key of which is denied to the rest of mankind. Our happiness no longer lives on charity, nor bids fair for a fall by leaning on that most precious and thorny pillow, another's pleasure, for our repose.—Dr. Young.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A NAME.—Seminaries of learning, like particular shops, are oftimes frequented more on account of what they have been, than what they are. So many instances of this might be produced, that it seems to be a prevailing opinion, in this island, that talent and genius, like cats, are more attached to particular walls and houses than to persons who reside within them.—Dr. Moore.

ENVY.—Envy, like a cold prison, benumbs and stupifies; and conscious of its own impotence, folds its arms in despair.—Voltier.

REMOVAL.

HENRY NIEDECKEN & CO.

WOULD HEREBY inform their friends and customers that they have removed their Store and Banking House to their old stand next the Post Office in

No. 219 East Water, Kneeland's Block.

Where we shall always keep on hand a large stock of
BLANK AND ACCOUNT BOOKS,
Record's Day Books, Receipt, Note and Draft Books, Dockets, Hotel Registers, Letter Copy Books, Wheat Receipts, Tally Books, Pass Books, etc., etc., all of our manufacture.

To our large and carefully selected stock of Papers and Stationery,
We are now daily receiving new additions, and every thing generally looked for in an establishment of this kind will be found there.

To our well known and long established
CITY BINDERY,
Which has gained fame and reputation throughout the State, we have procured very large and airy rooms and a strong and efficient set of journeymen, under the superintendence of that skilful and experienced ruler and binder EDWARD QUIN. We have procured at great expense all the machinery that is necessary for expediting and embellishing the work turned out of our establishment, and are now prepared to execute all description of work in the SHORTEST NOTICE—to do it well, and at very reasonable prices. We therefore invite old and new customers, one and all, to call on us at our store, No. 219 East Water street, Kneeland's Block, to see the new improvements made by the old firm of

MOST COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE STOCK OF DRY GOODS,
Ever before offered in the West!

Being connected with several large manufacturing establishments and importing houses at the East, giving us an advantage over any other Merchants in the State, and having long resided and done business in this city, and our established principles of doing business being well known to every city and country customer, to be of the most liberal nature, we flatter ourselves that we can say with safety that we consider competition quite out of the question.

We would say to
COUNTRY MERCHANTS
who design going East to purchase, that we would esteem it a favor if they would honor us with a call before leaving for New York and Boston, as we feel quite confident that we can convince them that it is to their interest to purchase in Milwaukee.
